

Colorado Senior Property Tax Exemption

A property tax exemption is available to qualifying senior citizens and the surviving spouses of seniors who previously qualified. The three basic requirements are: 1) the qualifying senior must be at least 65 years old on January 1 of the year in which he/she qualifies; 2) the qualifying senior must be the owner of record, and must have been the owner of record for at least ten consecutive years prior to January 1; 3) the qualifying senior must occupy the property as his/her primary residence, and must have done so for at least ten consecutive years prior to January 1.

For those who qualify, the exemption will reduce the actual value of your residential property by 50% up to a maximum reduction of $100,000. The state pays the tax on the exempted value.

An applicant or married couple can apply for the exemption on only one property. That property must be his/her or their primary residence. Married couples and individuals who apply for the exemption on multiple properties will be denied the exemption on each property.

For the purpose of the exemption, "primary residence" is the place at which a person's habitation is fixed and to which that person, when absent, has the intention of returning. A person can have only one primary residence at a time. If the senior is registered to vote, the address used for voter registration is considered the senior's primary residence. If the senior is not registered to vote, the address listed on automobile registrations, income tax returns, or other legal documents may be considered as evidence of the senior's place of primary residency. The property must be classified by the county assessor as residential. If the senior owns a multiple dwelling unit property, the exemption will only be granted to the unit occupied by the senior as his or her primary residence. The social security numbers of the applicant and each additional person who occupies the property as his or her primary residence are required by law, 39-3-205(2)(a)(I) and (III) C.R.S. They are used to ensure that no individual or married couple receives the exemption on more than one property.

Two application forms have been created for the exemption. The attached Short Form is intended for qualifying seniors who meet each of the requirements stated above. The Long Form must be used by individuals applying under the surviving spouse option and for applicants applying as the qualifying senior who fall within certain exceptions to the occupancy and ownership requirements.

The surviving spouse of an individual who previously qualified is someone who was married to a senior who met each of the application requirements on January 1 of the year of application. A surviving spouse must occupy the property as his or her primary residence, and must have done so with his or her spouse. Qualifications for the surviving spouse option are listed below under "Long Form Qualifications."

Exceptions to the occupancy and ownership requirements are as follows: 1) the ownership has been transferred to or purchased by a trust, corporate partnership or other legal entity solely for estate planning purposes; 2) the qualifying senior or his/her spouse was or is confined to a health care facility; 3) the prior residence was condemned in an eminent domain proceeding, or it was destroyed or otherwise rendered uninhabitable by a natural disaster.

The application deadline for either form is July 15 of the year for which you are seeking exemption. If the application is not filed by July 15, the assessor must accept late applications until September 15; however, applicants will not have appeal rights for applications filed after July 15. The exemption must be applied for only once, and it remains in effect for subsequent years as long as the property ownership and occupancy do not change. Your county assessor has a brochure containing additional information about the exemption.

Short Form Qualifications

The application deadline for the attached Short Form is July 15. The form can be used by applicants who meet each of the following requirements.

Age Requirement: You are 65 years old or older as of January 1 of the year for which you are seeking exemption.

Ownership Requirement: You are the current owner of record, and you have owned the property for at least 10 consecutive years prior to January 1 of the tax year for which you are seeking the exemption. (You do not have to be the sole owner of the property. You can own it with your spouse or with someone else. You can also own a life estate in the property.)

If your Spouse is/was the Owner of Record: For the purpose of the exemption, you are also considered an owner of the property for periods during which your spouse and not you was the owner of record if, during those periods, your spouse and you were married and your spouse also occupied the property as his or her primary residence.

Occupancy Requirement: You occupy the property as your primary residence, and you have done so for at least 10 consecutive years prior to January 1 of this year.

Long Form Qualifications

If any of the following conditions is true, you may still qualify for the exemption; but you must use the long application form. The Long Form can be obtained by calling your County Assessor at the phone number listed on this form. The deadline for applying with the Long Form is also July 15.

Exceptions to Ownership & Occupancy Requirements:

If Property is Owned by Trust, Corporate Partnership or Legal Entity: The ownership requirement may be satisfied if your property is owned by a trust, a corporate partnership, or other legal entity solely for estate planning purposes. You and/or your spouse must be the maker of the trust or a principal of the corporate partnership or legal entity. If the property was not owned by the trust, corporate partnership or legal entity, it would be owned by you and/or your spouse.

If Confined to Healthcare Facility: The occupancy requirement may be satisfied even though occupancy has been interrupted by confinement of the applicant or spouse in a nursing home, hospital or assisted living facility. While confined to the health care facility, the property was/is unoccupied, or it was/is occupied only by the spouse of the person confined or by a financial dependent.

If Prior Residence was Condemned or Destroyed in a Natural Disaster: The ownership and occupancy requirements may be satisfied if the reason for not meeting the 10-year time frame is due to the condemnation of the prior residence by a governmental entity in an eminent domain proceeding, or if the prior residence was destroyed or otherwise rendered uninhabitable by a natural disaster. Had that not occurred, you would still live in the prior residence, and you would meet the 10-year ownership and occupancy requirements for that property, or you would qualify as a surviving spouse for that property, and you have not owned and occupied any other residence since the time of the event.

If You are the Surviving Spouse of a Qualified Senior: You qualify as a surviving spouse if each of the following is true: A) On January 1, 2002 or any January 1 thereafter, your husband or wife met the age, ownership, and occupancy requirements stated above under "Short Form Qualifications"; B) You currently occupy the property as your primary residence, and you did so with your spouse; C) The property has been owned by you and/or your spouse for at least 10 years prior to January 1 of this year.

Disabled Veterans Exemption

In November 2006, voters enacted an amendment to the Colorado Constitution extending the senior exemption benefit to disabled veterans. Qualifying veterans are those who have a 100 percent permanent and total disability rating from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs as a result of a service-connected disability and who have owned and occupied the property as their primary residence since January 1. In 2014, Colorado's Legislature extended this exemption to the surviving spouse of a disabled veteran who previously received the exemption.

Application forms are available from the Colorado Department of Military and Veterans Affairs, Division of Veterans Affairs, 1355 S. Colorado Blvd., Bldg C, Ste 113, Denver, CO 80222. Their telephone number is 303-284-6077. Forms can also be obtained from their web site at www.colorado.gov/vets or from the web site of the Colorado Division of Property Taxation at www.dola.colorado.gov/dpt. The filing deadline is July 1.
